JET Programme Application for 2023

The application period for the 2023 Japan Exchange and Teaching (JET) Programme is currently open!

Below are some of tips that candidates should consider when completing the application packages:

1. Read the Application Guidelines First! (Extremely Important)
2. Submit ALL requested documents
3. Submit a Certified Copy of your Graduation Certificate (not the Original Certificate)
4. Official Transcripts from the University should be in a sealed envelope (note - if you cannot get the official transcripts in time, submit the student copy. If you are shortlisted, we would request the official transcripts)
5. The Original Recommendation letters should be signed and sealed. (note - printed emailed letters would not be accepted or considered.)
6. Fill out the complete Application Form.
7. The Statement of Purpose (extremely important) paint yourself and your interest on the pages.
8. The Application includes 3 packages, that is, 1 original and 2 copies.
9. The programme is extremely competitive, 100's apply every year. Therefore, when completing your application keep this in mind and try to stand out.

Module: Supervisory Management

Module Description: This course focuses on management concepts and theories that influence supervision today and provides participants with practical knowledge of supervisory skills. This course is designed to introduce the basic principles of managing at the supervisory level and highlight its effectiveness in contemporary business practices. The skills and competencies gained will enable the supervisor to execute motivational and leadership roles and enhance his or her ability to deal effectively with performance problems, manage workflows, and develop teamwork.

The purpose of this course is to provide an opportunity for participants to develop the skills required for understanding higher-level business studies and workplace entry-level competencies, and for dealing with human problems within the organization. It covers elements such as effective leadership, communication skills, coaching and learning, how to delegate, decision making and problem-solving, team building and motivation, and the functions and responsibilities of supervisors.

Pre-Requisites:

- At least a professional certificate, a diploma, or an associate's degree in any field.
- Basic Knowledge of Microsoft Word.

All materials will be given, so there are no required books or other materials to purchase. However, there is a need to conduct your own research for the duration of the course.

This course is geared toward the Development and Empowerment of individuals between the ages of 20-50.

All sessions will be held on our Zoom platform.

Sessions begin on Saturday, 26th November 2022 to 10th December 2022 from 3:00 p.m to 6:00 p.m. Hence, it would be held for THREE consecutive Saturdays.

WhatsApp (868) 355-3431 to register to secure your space in this Life Skills and Professional Development Programme.

LIMITED SPACES ARE AVAILABLE!!!

Certificates will be given upon completion of the Course after successfully passing the assessment.
